TO SPEAK OR NOT TO SPEAK

The apostles refused to be silenced by the Sanhedrin. We know we should have the same kind of courage, but often we don't. Which of the following are most likely to keep you from speaking out for Jesus?

iStock

- ___ Fear of rejection
- ___ Not sure what to say
- ___ Being too timid
- ___ Not wanting to hurt a friendship
- ___ Waiting for just the right moment

What you should do next is obvious: pray for God to help you overcome the reason for your silence! After you do, make plans to present the gospel this week to someone who needs to hear it. Make a commitment in that regard below.

This week I will talk to _____.

RESPONDING IN A CRISIS

OF MOTIVES AND MINISTRY

God endows us with spiritual gifts to use for service. Desiring spiritual gifts is appropriate (see 1 Corinthians 12:31; 14:1), but using them selfishly violates their purpose. In today's text, Simon reveals his selfish motives with the words me and I (v. 19). Considering the spiritual gift(s) God has given you, can you affirm the following as an expression of your motive?

I SEE MY GIFT(S) AS BEING _____

THE WAY I SEE THAT MY GIFT(S) CAN BEST BE USED TO HELP OTHERS IS _____

I COMMIT TO FULFILLING GOD'S PURPOSE IN GRANTING ME THE GIFT(S).

THE JERUSALEM COUNCIL

This sketch dramatizes events just before and during the Jerusalem Council. Parts include Narrator, Judean Man, Paul, Barnabas, James, Believing Pharisee, and Peter.

Narrator: [foreboding tone] Men came from Judea to Antioch to protest the baptism of uncircumcised Gentiles.

Judean Man: [skeptical, accusatory tone] Paul and Barnabas, what are you doing letting these Gentiles think they are saved? You shouldn't baptize them until they are circumcised and have pledged to obey the Law of Moses.

Paul: [strongly] Certainly they are saved! Salvation is God's gift to us based on the grace of Jesus Christ, not based on keeping the law. There is no need for them to be circumcised!

Barnabas: [kindly] We have preached to and baptized many Gentiles, and God has granted them salvation. He has shown by many miracles that He accepts them.

Judean Man: [still skeptical] Why don't we take this issue to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem and see what they have to say about it?

Paul and Barnabas: We agree. Let's go.

Narrator: So Paul and Barnabas, along with other believers, set out to meet with the church leaders in Jerusalem to resolve the dispute. When they arrived, church leaders there were delighted to see them.

James: [warmly] Paul, Barnabas, everyone—welcome! We can't wait to hear what's happening in Antioch.

Believing Pharisee: [condemning tone] I, for one, have heard enough already; this is very disturbing! These two should know better: the way to Jesus goes through the synagogue. Gentile men need to become circumcised proselytes to Judaism first; then they can be baptized into Christ.

Peter: [firmly] Brothers, you know very well that I experienced firsthand the opportunity to present the gospel to Gentiles. God showed He accepted them by giving them the Holy Spirit just as He did with us! Why should we put a burden on Gentiles that we Jews ourselves can't handle? It's by the grace of the Lord Jesus that we are all saved.

Narrator: Then those gathered listened in amazed silence as Paul and Barnabas told of all the miracles and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles.

ENCOURAGEMENT!

Paul received encouragement from the Lord in a vision, and workers for Christ today need encouragement too! After your teacher announces a name, take a minute to write a note to him or her to the left. Your teacher will collect these for delivery to the intended recipient(s).

Don't forget to pray for him or her in the week ahead!
