

Agreements of Peace

Historically, conflicts end with a written agreement of peace. Make a copy of this page for your answer key. Cut the other copy apart on the dotted lines. After all class members have arrived, shuffle the slips of paper and distribute them among the class members. Give your group about five minutes to match a conflict with the agreement that ended it.

American Revolutionary War	Treaty of Paris (1783)
War of 1812	Treaty of Ghent
Mexican–American War	Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo
American Civil War	Lee’s Surrender at Appomattox
Spanish–American War	Treaty of Paris (1898)
World War I	Treaty of Versailles
Occupation of European Theatre of WWII	Potsdam Agreement
World War II (Pacific Theatre)	Japanese Instrument of Surrender
Korean War	Korean Armistice Agreement
Kosovo War	Kumanovo Agreement